Dear Editor,

This is a letter of gratitude and thanks to all the good Samaritans who assisted me last Tuesday at a Richmond mall when I fell in the road.

To the gentleman who called 9-1-1, the folks who notified mall security, the mall security and first aider, the lady who stayed with me until the ambulance arrived (and rubbed my back to make me feel better), Emily and her crew with BC Ambulance and Dr. Fetter and the hospital staff — thank you!

It's good to know there are still such caring people in our community.

Dear Editor,

I would thank the kindness of strangers who ran to assist when I fell on the concrete tiles on the boardwalk at 4300 Bayview on Jan. 13.

There was a gentleman who cleaned up my bag with broken glass and Helen with her dog Hunter, who carried my bag and walked me to my front door to ensure I arrived safely.

They showed the best of our community and I'm very grateful they were there.

Thank you!
